PRESS RELEASE

Alter Domus opens an office in Mauritius.

Alter Domus, an independent provider of outsourced administration services, announces the opening of an office in Mauritius as from February 1st, 2010. Alter Domus (Mauritius) LTD is a joint-venture established between the Alter Domus Group and Altima Group, a Mauritius-based conglomerate. The new office will provide corporate management services and fund administration services to multinational corporations and alternative investment funds in the region.

The addition of this new country allows Alter Domus to be present in nine of the principle jurisdictions worldwide, offering its clients services that support accounting, regulatory and compliance requirements of legal entities locally established.

Dominique Robyns, CEO of Alter Domus Group, commented, "Always guided by the evolving needs of our portfolio of clients, we pursue our international development. Mauritius is an important jurisdiction for many of our clients, and therefore, it was important for us to have the possibility to help them in this region too."

Victor Seeyave, Managing Director of the new entity observes that "Mauritius is gaining increasing prominence as an ideal platform for investment in Africa, the Middle East and Asia. In line with the Group's vision and core principles, we will spare no efforts to provide the same standards of quality, responsiveness and confidentiality in this new endeavour."

About Alter Domus: Established originally in Luxembourg, Alter Domus has expanded to Cyprus, Guernsey, Hong Kong, Hungary, Jersey, the Netherlands, a representative office in New York, and now to Mauritius. An independent firm, Alter Domus has a dedicated team of over 350 professionals with strong expertise in both corporate and management services and fund administration.
